

Link Award Application Booklet

General

The Idaho GCSA Link Award competition offers educational aid to the children of Idaho GCSA members, or to students enrolled in turf studies. The Idaho Golf Course Superintendents Association, at their discretion, administers the awards and determines the dollar amounts each year.

The Idaho GCSA Scholarship Committee will review applications. All decisions of the committee will be final. Scholarship recipients will receive the scholarship check with a letter of acknowledgement by June 15. All scholarship award checks will be made payable to the applicant.

Eligibility for applicants of either the Legacy Award or the Turf Award:

Legacy Award:

1. One or more of the applicant's parents must be a Idaho GCSA member and currently active for at least 12 months in one of the following classifications: AA, A – Golf Course Superintendent, SM- Golf Course Superintendent, C- Assistant Golf Course Superintendent, D-Allied, F-Associate or G-Honorary Life. The competition is open to natural or adoptive offspring of Idaho GCSA members. Children of deceased members are also eligible if the member was currently active at the time of his or her death.
2. The student must be enrolled full-time at an accredited institution of higher learning, or in the case of high school seniors, must be accepted at such an institution for the next academic year. Graduating high school seniors must attach a letter of acceptance to their application.
3. The Committee requests the recipient of the Legacy Award write a brief 'thank you' letter to the members of the Idaho Golf Course Superintendents Association. The letter should also contain a brief description of accomplishments during the scholarship period. The letter should be completed within one month from the end of the semester and may be published in the Grass Clippings.
4. Past winners are eligible to apply the following year.
5. Although any number of students from the same family may apply, only one student per family will be eligible to receive an award.
